

We are excited to present a diverse offering of sessions at this year's Fall Conference. Some of our topics will include teachings on DEI, Mental Health, STEM, and Early Childhood. Here is a listing of a few of the options that you will have to choose from. We will be releasing full descriptions soon!

"Mentally Well Staff" - Beverlee Wenzel

"Mentally Well Kids" - Beverlee Wenzel

"Why am I Learning This?" - Kate Porter

"The Flying Classroom Presents" - Captain Barrington Irving

"LGBTQIA+ Youth: trauma, resilience, and connection" - Kirk Lewis

"Roots of Resilience: what kids need (and a few things they don't)" - Kirk Lewis

"The Play Factor: build resilience by engaging childhood energy" - Kirk Lewis

"Project Based Learning (PBL) – Going Where You Need to Be in Afterschool" - Patricia Wiley

"Supporting Early Literacy with Families" - Adisa Ababa

"The Missing Link: Using Mental Health Tools to Reach Your Program Objectives"
- Calvalyn G Day

"Coding with Bravery, Resilience, Community, and Equity" - Michaela Burger

"Bias Awareness for Early Childhood Educators" - Marcy L. Peake

"Teaching Science When You Don't Know Diddly-Squat" - Darren Bagley

"School Safety and Violence: The Disconnect of Connection and How After School Programs
May Hold a Key to the Solution" - Dr. Randy Speck

"Mindful Performance Therapy Project" - Diana Volant, MA LLP

"Motivated to Give Your Best Self" - Sima Ballinger

"The Art of Repairing, Thriving and Moving Forward" - Gloria Sherman

"Understanding Behavior from the Inside Out" - Gloria Sherman

"Beyond ACEs: Pathways to Resilience with our Youngest Students" - Gloria Sherman

"Student Focused K.I.S.S. and S.M.A.R.T.E.R. Objectives In A Face-To-Face or Virtual Atmosphere" - Gene L. Hall, II

"Mastering Engagement through Storytelling for Educators" - Rae Chesny